Wisconsin Office of the Insurance Commissioner Property & Casualty Section Chief To be in Kenosha County to Help Tornado Survivors

“In response to the numerous questions/issues that arose at the February 25th Town Hall Meeting for Tornado Survivors, Rhonda Peterson, Property and Casualty Section Chief for the WI Office of the Insurance Commissioner will be in Kenosha County on March 10th to meet with residents affected by the tornadoes,” stated Ben Schliesman, Director, Kenosha County Emergency Management/Homeland Security. “Ms. Peterson will be at the Kenosha County Center, Conference Room A (Highways 45 & 50) from 11:00 AM – 7:30 PM to talk with residents affected by the Tornadoes, answer their questions and help them with their insurance issues.”

In the interim if you have any insurance questions/issues, you may contact the WI Office of the Insurance Commissioner at 1-800-236-8517.
